Godwin Nwafor

Kudos to CIES for such a wonderful package. Last but not the least MUCH appreciation to one of the most innovative universities in this continent (NMMU) for been able to accommodate us for this course and making available their best lecturers just for us to have the BEST. Thanks to every other individual such as our Guest lecturers and of course my colleagues for making the entire course a success. May you all be richly blessed.

FIFA/CIES/NMMU 2010 edition has come to an end and I would like to express my thanks to all staff (Vernon Oosthuizen) at NMMU and CIES (Vincent Monnier, Roland Chavillon), guest speakers and class mates. This course has taught me so much and has impacted my life on a daily basis. It's this type of education you appreciate when it comes to sharing skills and talents and communicating on a regular basis. So thank you FIFA, CIES and NMMU for enriching my career and life, I remain forever grateful for the opportunity.

Alice Bailey

Thank you once again for the inspiration, motivation and making us aware that there is so much more to achieve in the world than being stuck with the same old routine. It's all about taking chances - something I would have never done previously.

After our final block at NMMU, I have to say thank you to all the people involved (Vernon, Buhle, Sam and all the lecturers), the guest lecturers, CIES, the locals for everything that you guys do every year to make this program possible. Much appreciated! I got to learn a lot from my classmates too.

Bukola Olopade

I remember during the interview to this programme when Vernon asked me what I wanted from this programme claiming I had achieved so much in sports, and I said to him that I was a sport administrative illiterate who needed this programme to enhance myself. Today I am so grateful to God and the FIFA/CIES team and especially to Vernon for this opportunity because I can say now that I am literate enough to navigate my way more robustly in the sporting world. And all my stereotype of South Africans has disappeared yet another huge education for me.

Just from my side, thanks so much for everything Vernon and Buhle have done behind the scenes to ensure our wonderful time at NMMU during the last block. What an incredible course! I have really benefitted from this course, and whatever I'm doing in football now, will have much more meaning and hopefully long lasting effects! I cannot actually put into words what it has meant to me!
